JANUARY CHALLENGE

by Judy Berland

“Make a Silk Purse Out of a Sow’s Ear III”

Take an old painting and change it to make it good enough to put in an exhibit.

1. You can make the changes directly on the old painting, reworking the failed parts, but use solid colors only, no shading or blending.
2. You can make the changes on a brand new painting.
3. Cut up an old painting and use pieces to make a brand new painting.
4. Abstract it. Collage it only 20%, or multi-media it.

Check out Tricia’s list of 18 ways to convert a failed effort into a masterpiece!!!
Check out David Hockney’s landscapes on Pinterest (Garroway Hill. Malibu, etc.)

A 4x6 photo of the original old painting must be propped up against the new one; and if the new one is different enough and has followed the rules of this challenge, the Challenge Committee will OK it to be put in a future SWS Exhibit and the 2 year and all Exhibit rules will apply.

“The Web” by Charles Sheeler

RULES FOR ALL CHALLENGES:

Entries will not be accepted unless they meet the following Challenge rules exactly - NO EXCEPTIONS

1. Do not sign your painting.
2. Entries must fit the theme.
3. Entries must be matted (they do not need to be framed).
4. Entries may only be submitted into one Challenge.
You may not enter a challenge painting into a second Challenge, even if it fits the theme.
5. Entries must be new, having been painted specifically for the Challenge.
6. Entries cannot have been shown in an exhibit prior to the Challenge.

Happy Holidays from

NEWS FROM THE BOARD

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, RONNIE RECTOR

December 2018:

Hard to believe I've had the honor of being your Pres for a whole year now. Yikes, where does the time go? I want to wish you a most joyous holiday season, filled with family, friends, light and laughter. Now...anyone interested in taking on the President role in 2020? Please! Email me if you are even slightly considering it. I'll be happy to meet with you for dinner and beverages and go over what you'd expect!

I've been away on vacation and came back to work today to over 200 emails to wade through, about 85% of which were quickly deleted as garbage. Let's talk about hoaxes, viruses, and general deadbeats out to steal your money. Bear with me if you already know this, but these are making the rounds again and I feel it's important.

We've all gotten those weird emails from a friend asking for help because they're stuck in some foreign land without a credit card, passport, etc., and asking you to wire them money via Western Union. This is a hoax. A good way to see if an email is really from your friend is to hover your mouse pointer over the sender's name in your "Inbox." Your computer will show you, for about a second, the hidden address this email actually came from. As you can see in the screenshot, below, the email address for my husband, David, is fake, so I know it is junk, and delete it immediately.

Viruses come from clicking on what looks like a harmless link inside an email you've received from one of the phonies described above, or from clicking on the little flashy ads you see on the sides of your monitor when you're checking your email or browsing the internet. These often carry "Trojan Horse" viruses that will wreak havoc on your computer. If you're interested in a product you see, look it up using Google or another official search engine, so you know you're actually being directed to a real company.

Another hoax going around all the time is the email from some fellow saying he saw your artwork "while visiting the area," and wanted to surprise his wife for her birthday. He even offers to send a courier to pick up the artwork. Do not respond. This scam artist actually mails you a cashier's check for much more than your asking price. You deposit the check, and within a day or two, he contacts you again, says his "solicitor" or "accountant" made a mistake, and asks for a refund of the extra money. This is how he steals from you. You mail him a check, it gets cashed, and a month or so later, his phony check bounces. You've lost whatever 'refund' you sent him. No courier ever shows up, either.

I hope this helps to keep your computers safe and your bank accounts happy! Seasoned Greetings, stay healthy, and enjoy the onslaught of WINTER!

...Ronnie

STAN MILLER WORKSHOP

Painting the Portrait and Landscape in Watercolor

Workshop: March 6 – 8, 2019 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Demonstration: March 9, 2019 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Member: $265

Non-Member: $325

Registration Open Date: December 1, 2018

About the Artist: Stan Miller was born on a small farm in SE South Dakota. He was one of 7 children. Stan moved to Spokane, WA when he was 15 years old and graduated from Spokane Falls Community College with an Applied Arts Degree and a Commercial Art Degree. He remembers getting a “C” in his first watercolor class so took the class again and received an “A”. This is when he fell in love with watercolor. He has been teaching since 1976 and loves it almost as much as painting. His awards are numerous such as ones from The American Watercolor Society International Exhibition (NYC), Quindao International Watercolor Exhibition (China), Artist Magazine National Competition, and Grand Prize from Watercolor Magic National Competition.

About the workshop: In Stan’s workshop, he will be guiding the students through both, portrait and landscape subjects. Handouts of both portrait and landscape will be provided each day. Students may choose to do just a portrait or landscape following along with Stan. Students are also welcome to work from their own photos if they want. Stan will visit with each student throughout the workshop. Technique, color, design, and composition will be discussed and demonstrated. Choosing paintable subjects will be addressed as well. If students have questions about the workshop, email Stan at stan@stanmiller.net or check out his website: www.stanmiller.net.

ART ANGELS

ART IN THE SCHOOLS: This month we have gone to Sepulveda Elementary, Alice Smith Elementary, and Jerry Whitehead Elementary. We ran into a new requirement at Whitehead Elementary: that all volunteers submit a Volunteer Application to the WUSD and go through a background check (which we may be asked to do at other schools in the future); we had to re-schedule one class, to allow time for the background checks, but have all been cleared, so we can now sail ahead! Many thanks to Linda James, for instructing two classes, and to Debbie Henson-Lamp, Gail Kramer, Wendy Marshall, Ute Vetter, Eileen Fuller, and Kathy Martin for making the children's experience so awesome.

Classes coming up for which I need help are as follows:

Tuesday, December 11, 11:50 a.m.-3 p.m. Jerry Whitehead Elementary, 3570 Waterfall Drive, Sparks: one helper*

Thursday, February 7, 12:15-3 p.m. Jesse Hall Elementary, 185 Shelby Drive, Sparks: need 3-4 helpers

Friday, February 15, 11:50-3 p.m. Jerry Whitehead Elementary, 3570 Waterfall Drive, Sparks: need 4 helpers*

Monday, March 11, 11:40 a.m.-3 p.m. Elizabeth Lenz Elementary, 2500 Homeland Drive: need 4 helpers

*= You will need to submit a Volunteer Application to the School District, if you have not already done so.

ART ANGELS HOLIDAY WORKSHOP: This will be at the Wilbur D. May Museum on Saturday, December 15, from 9:30-11:30, with instructors & helpers asked to arrive about 9 a.m. Linda James & I will set up the previous afternoon, but the children have been asked to arrive about 9:15 a.m., and 44 have already made reservations! Thanks to all who signed up to instruct or to help, but I could use one more instructor, one more person to greet the children & mat the paintings, and one more general helper.

ART ANGELS SILENT AUCTION & RAFFLE, December 1-15 at the May Museum: I still need small, original paintings for the Silent Auction: they can be older, framed or unframed, but one(s) that you are willing to donate to the cause & that are in good condition. I need them by 9:30 a.m. on December 1, so it may be too late, by the time you get this Newsletter, but perhaps you will see this in time! Thank you.

I also NEED PEOPLE TO OVERSEE THE SILENT AUCTION & RAFFLE: TO SELL RAFFLE TICKETS (1 for $5, 5 for $20, 15 for $50) AND ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SILENT AUCTION PROCESS & KEEP AN EYE ON THE PAINTINGS! These are the times I need monitors:

Saturday, December 1: 10:30 a.m.-Noon (2), Noon-2, 2-4 p.m.

Sunday, December 2: Noon-2, 2-4 p.m. (1 or 2 per shift)

Wednesday, December 5: 10-Noon, Noon-2, 2-4 (1 per shift)

Thursday, December 6: 10-Noon, Noon-2, 2-4 (1 per shift)

Saturday, December 8: 2-4 p.m.

Sunday, December 9: Noon-2, 2-4

Wednesday, December 12: Noon-2, 2-4

Thursday, December 13: Noon-2, 2-4

Saturday, December 15: 9:30-11 a.m., 11 a.m.-Noon (during & just after the Art Angels Workshop)

Please, please call or email if you have questions or can help with any of these important activities! Thank you!

PUBLICITY

I "manned" a booth for SWS at First Thursday at the Museum of Art on Thursday, November 1, from 5-7 p.m.

I handed out information about upcoming SWS events (including the Winter Exhibit, Holiday Brunch, and Art Angels Silent Auction & Raffle), answered questions, and raffled off a small original painting. There will be another "First Thursday" on December 6, if anyone would like to join me. There's live music, wine, food, & lots of people!

I composed the text for radio ads on both KUNR Public Radio and KTHX (The X), which will run November 28-30 and December 12-14. The first ads will highlight the Exhibit, the Artists' Reception & Brunch, and the start of the Art Angels Silent Auction & Raffle. The second ads will highlight the end of the Silent Auction & Raffle and the Exhibit.

I sent notices to five online calendars about the current & upcoming SWS events: the Winter Exhibit, the artists' reception & brunch, and the Silent Auction & Raffle. I attended a workshop for 2019-20 City of Reno grants, which I may write, as I could fairly easily highlight the Art Angels programs; would love a co-writer, as I look at the requirements more closely. And I continue to attend the Reno Arts Consortium meetings the 3rd Thursday of each month, from 9-10:30 a.m. in the McKinley Arts & Culture Center, whenever possible. Always interesting, and a good way to network! Hope you had a good Thanksgiving!

Nancy

A message from new Librarian Cheryl Keaveny:

With Linda Halicki's move to the SWS Secretary position, I will be assuming the Librarian position with the help of Bess Inouye. First I want to sing praises for the wonderful job that Linda Halicki has done over the last three years. She is amazingly organized and has kept all of the materials in immaculate condition. Even more impressive, she has read all of the books and viewed all of the DVDs in the library. Maybe some day I can say the same. Many many thanks to Linda.

As we've done in the past, we will be accepting returns at the Holiday Brunch on December 1st but will not be checking out DVDs or books. I plan to be organized for new checkouts at the January meeting. Please send any suggestions, reviews or requests for book check-out to cherylkeaveney@gmail.com.
